

DUBLIN OAK ACADEMY

Bray, Co. Wicklow, Ireland

Dublin Oak Academy

A prestigious private, catholic and international boarding middle school founded in 1969. Dedicated to academic excellence, character development, and personal growth in young boys. Collaborating with parents, our mission is to guide students in their integral formation, following catholic values. The academy is located in Wicklow, renowned for its rich historical and cultural heritage, and is conveniently situated close to Dublin, offering easy access to both the bustling city life and the serene beauty of the countryside.

Dynamic Student Life:

Daily prayers and delicious meals. Engaging classes taught by local English-speaking teachers. Afternoons sports and cultural clinics. Exciting weekend outings to local attractions. Recreational activities fostering camaraderie on campus.

A Haven of Beauty

Kilcroney Castle is the location of the academy, a captivating journey back in time where the walls echo tales of knights, nobles, and ancient battles. Its awe-inspiring architecture and profound history make it a true treasure of Co. Wicklow, set amidst a stunning backdrop of rolling hills, lush green landscapes, and breathtaking views. In addition to its rich heritage, the property also hosts modern and comfortable residential facilities, providing a serene and welcoming environment for students to immerse themselves fully in their educational journey.
